WebMaster

Hot Diggity Dog Resort · First draft, Fri, Oct 2, 2026. It changes as the website does; the newest version is always in Front Desk → Help.

Your job on the website

You look after the website: the words and photos on every page, blog posts, the Meet the Team page, and how each page looks on Google and Facebook. Changes are saved as a draft you can preview, and every change can be undone.

What your login can do

These come from your job's permissions (the owners set them on Staff logins & permissions). If you need something that isn't here, ask a manager.

How to log in, find your way around the Front Desk, and read the red numbers.

Welcome! This is our new system. It takes the place of EasyBusy. You do all of your desk work on one website. This page shows you how to get in and where things are.

Steps

- 1 Go to our website on the desk computer. Press Log In at the top.
- 2 Type your work email and your password. Then press Log in.

The log in page

- 3 Press Front Desk at the top of the page. You land on the Today page.
- 4 Look at the menu on the left. It is the same on every Front Desk page.

The Front Desk menu

5

Look for red numbers in the menu. A red number means there is work waiting. For example, the number by Requests is how many bookings need your answer.

How a page looks on Google and Facebook

The Search & sharing box: the title, the short description, and the sharing picture for each page.

Every page has a Search & sharing box. It decides what people see on Google, and the picture that shows when someone shares the page on Facebook or in a text. Every page already has good ones. Change them only when you have a reason to.

Change them

- 1 Open the page (Website pages, then press the page).
- 2 Scroll down to Search & sharing.
- 3 Title: the blue line on Google and the name on the browser tab. Keep it short: what we do, and where. Example: Dog Boarding in Escondido, CA.
- 4 Description: the gray lines under the title on Google. One or two sentences that make someone want to click. Put the most important words first.
- 5 What it looks like on Google shows a preview as you type. If words turn into "...", it's too long.
- 6 Sharing picture: press Upload a new photo, or open Or pick one of the website's photos and press one.
- 7 Press Save search & sharing.

The Search & sharing box

Good to know: Don't stuff the title with lots of words like "dog dog boarding kennel pet hotel". Google likes plain, honest titles. One page, one main idea.

Careful: Leave a box blank to go back to the site's own title and description.

How our website talks

The rules for writing on our website, so every page sounds like us and only says what's true.

The one idea

Your dog should feel at home when they're not at home. And: Your dog doesn't just stay. They get better.

The client is the hero, we are the guide

The person reading loves their dog like family. Leaving them is hard. Every page should do three things:

- 1 Name the worry, kindly. ("Is she scared? Is he just sitting in a cage?")
- 2 Show we can help: Penny's training and credentials, since 2012, private suites, 15 dogs or fewer per staff member, webcams, real client reviews.
- 3 Give a simple plan: create an account, book a Play Date (our Temperament Assessment), and relax.

Every page has a Book a Play Date or Book Now button at the top and the bottom.

How we write

- Talk to one person: "you" and "your dog."
- Short sentences. Plain words. Warm, like a friend who knows dogs.
- No business words like "solutions," "world-class," or "premier."
- Lead with a picture of the good result ("a tired, happy dog at pickup"), then the fact that backs it up.

Only what's true

- Prices come from the price list on the site. Don't type prices into a page by hand.
- Use real client words only, word for word. Never make up a review.
- We don't give tours (people are welcome to come in and see the place).
- Don't say "trusted by local vets" or "certified pet care experts" for the whole team.
- Not sure something is true? Ask David before it goes live.

Good to know: The full writing guide is the BrandScript, and the facts list is the Site Facts sheet. Ask an owner for a copy.
